Executive Assistant to DCI

4 July 1952

Director of Training

Weekly Summary Report

1. As a result of Agency policy strictly limiting the input of professional personnel in a provisionally cleared status, Unclassified Training Group "A", which uses only unclassified material in training, and has been operating on a formal 6-week schedule, is now accepting students at any time and releasing them upon receipt of clearance, regardless of whether or not a 6-week training period has been completed.

2. Chief, Orientation and Briefing Division presented a special Intelligence Indoctrination program for 55 persons of Office of Communications.

3. Eighty-one new employees attended this week's Intelligence Indoctrination program.

4. [] OPC, who was separated from CIA to enter the OCF program, completed Marine Corps Basic Training, standing sixth in a class of 165. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant, USMC, and is now undergoing Basic Officer Training to be followed by a year's duty with the Marine Corps prior to return to the Agency.

8. Seminar on International Labor Relations

A meeting with [] the OPC project officer for this proposed seminar, was held to determine what the objective of such a course should be and what were the requirements of the interested offices. [] concurred fully that it would be impractical to plan a program without first having determined the objective of the contemplated training and the requirements of the participating offices. [] did not know what the objective of the training should be or what the requirements of his office would be. He will obtain this information and forward it to this office. [] is in a position to consult with [] on setting up the
